Full Biography

“Douglas Detrick is one of the brightest young talents to emerge in Oregon jazz lately.”

- Brett Campbell, Willamette Week, 8.27.09

Douglas Detrick, 27, is a composer and trumpet player based in the Bronx, NY. Equally at home as a performer and a composer, he is a versatile and eclectic musician establishing his reputation as an innovative composer and performer. Douglas Detrick’s AnyWhen Ensemble, a chamber-jazz quintet, will be releasing “Rivers Music”, its second recording, on the Origin Classical record label in January of 2011. AnyWhen Ensemble will also record a new album featuring Wayne Horvitz in January 2011 after its appearance at the Is That Jazz Festival in Seattle, WA. Detrick has performed throughout the west coast and New York as a leader of his own ensembles and as a sideman with many fine musicians and looks forward to getting more and more involved in the music scene as a composer, performer, educator and blogger.
